In Spring 2014 We Asked You Some Questions

Here’s (some of) what you told us.

Who are you?

- We got 127 survey responses, or about 10% of the College of Music. Out of those:
  - 41% of you were undergraduates
  - 26% of you were doctoral students
  - 19% of you were master’s students
  - 17% of you were faculty
  - 1% of you preferred an air of mystery

What’s important to you?

- Study & Work Space
- Collaborative Space
- Help from Library Staff
- Interlibrary Loan

Mean Importance of Resources

- Faculty
- Doctoral
- Master’s
- Undergraduate

- Arts Administration 7%
- Conducting 4%
- General Music & Misc Programs 4%
- Music Education 16%
- Music Therapy 7%
- Musicology 15%
- Performance & Ensembles 35%
- Theory & Composition 15%

What do you want more of?

- The top five, as calculated by number of Most Interested votes minus Least Interested votes:
  1. Print scores (42)
  2. Weekend hours (32)
  3. Online journals (26)
  4. Study space (22)
  5. Print books (17)

We can’t make any promises, but we hear you!

Media matters

- How often do you look for stuff with…?
- How do you read digital texts?
- Print or digital?
