ABOUT THE ENSEMBLE

Afro Nyota. “African stars,” coined by ensemble members of Fall 2019, maintains a sense of communality and community as its core value. We draw our repertory from different genres and types of music across the African continent, i.e., Highlife, Juju, Taarab, Kwela, Afrobeat, Afro-Pop, Soukous, et cetera. Our goals are (1) to replicate and provide African communal experiences to ensemble members, participants, and audiences; (2) to perform popular African music(s) that give glimpses into the multiplicities in sound, diversity in/of musical ideas, as well as the vastness and complexities of the day-to-day sonic soundscapes of contemporary African nations. The ensemble fuses indigenous African musical instruments with orchestra and Jazz band instruments while maintaining African rhythmic, melodic, and harmonic imagination and expression.
