

PROGRAM of STUDY

Please type all required information. List courses in the order they were/will be completed, where applicable. Each course should be listed on a separate line. Include only courses that will apply to the degree. Excess coursework will be reflected on your transcript.

The Doctor of Philosophy degree requires a minimum of 94 semester credits beyond the bachelor's degree. Thirty (30) credits from the master's degree count toward the 94, and the remaining 64 credits are completed at FSU (40 credits of coursework plus 24 credits of dissertation). Note: if the Master of Music degree was completed at FSU, all graduate-level credits (except remedial music history) count toward the total number of credits for the doctorate.

DOCTOR of PHILOSOPHY

MAJOR Musicology

Major, CIP: 500905

NAME: _____

FSU ID: _____

Specialization in particular research interests can be pursued within the major.

I. DIAGNOSTIC ASSESSMENT EXAMS

All students entering the doctoral program take the doctoral assessment exams. For those continuing from the FSU Master's in Musicology program, their written master's comprehensive exams will act as the written portion of the doctoral diagnostic exam. Students accepted into the doctoral program from outside FSU will write essay questions equivalent to those given to continuing students as part of their master's comprehensive exams. All students, continuing or new, will be required to take the 1-hour oral exam scheduled the Friday before classes begin in the fall semester to discuss their written exams and confer on doctoral coursework.

II. COLLEGE of MUSIC RESIDENCE/FSU SCHOLARLY ENGAGEMENT REQUIREMENT

Please consult the current Florida State University graduate bulletin for an overview of the Scholarly Engagement requirement for all doctoral students in the university. To meet the Scholarly Engagement requirement, College of Music doctoral students must select one of the following options and indicate dates:

___ Option 1: complete twenty-four (24) graduate (5000-level or above) credit hours within any consecutive 12-month period (Completed from _____ to _____)

___ Option 2: Complete a minimum of eighteen (18) graduate credit hours in any consecutive 12-month period (Completed from _____ to _____) and additional Scholarly Engagement activities equivalent to 6 credit hours prior to completion of the degree. These activities may include enrolling in courses (additional credit hours); attending or presenting/performing in seminars, masterclasses, workshops, symposia, conferences, and festivals; engaging in creative activities, research, or collaborative study beyond the university campus; utilizing the library, laboratories, and other facilities provided by the University; and other scholarly or creative activities as determined by area faculty and approved by the area coordinator and by the Director of Graduate Studies for the College of Music.

III. LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

Demonstrated proficiency in at least two languages other than English is required for the PhD in Musicology prior to scheduling the doctoral preliminary exam. Students should study languages appropriate to their areas of research interest and must consult with their advisor and the musicology faculty for approval of their selected languages.

IV. MAJOR AREA COURSEWORK

COURSE PREFIX & NUMBER	COURSE NAME (as appears in catalog)	SEMESTER & YEAR	GRADE	HOURS
Four Seminars at the 5xxx or above level within the musicology area
Required Total 12			TOTAL

V. ELECTIVES

In addition to the four musicology seminars, new doctoral students and faculty present at their doctoral assessment exams will determine additional required and recommended courses and seminars from both within and outside the Musicology area and the College of Music. These will be decided based on the individual student's focus of study and the faculty's best judgement.

VI. PRELIMINARY EXAM, DISSERTATION, and DISSERTATION DEFENSE

Dissertation hours must total at least 24.

PRELIMINARY EXAM

Passing the preliminary exam allows a student to be admitted to candidacy. A student must be admitted to candidacy at least six months prior to the granting of the degree. All requirements of the doctoral degree must be completed within five calendar years from the time the student passes the preliminary examination and is admitted to the candidacy. The preliminary exam consists of written and oral sections, and is taken when the student has completed all coursework or is in the final semester of coursework and cannot be scheduled until the student has fulfilled the language requirement. The student's prospectus must have been circulated to the committee or been approved by the advisor prior to the Preliminary Exam. It is the responsibility of the student's Major Professor to determine when a student must take the examination. The student must be registered for MUS 8964 (0 credit) during the semester in which the examination is taken. Please note that all required coursework for the degree must be completed prior to taking the preliminary exam.

Dissertation

The student must be registered for MUS 8985 (0 credit) during the semester in which the defense is conducted.
